Steven Lim, Arbitrator and Barrister, 39 Essex Chambers

Steven is an arbitrator and barrister with more than 25 years' experience in international dispute resolution and arbitration in Asia. He sits as presiding, sole, co-arbitrator and emergency arbitrator and is a panel arbitrator with the SIAC, HKIAC, ICDR, KCAB, AIAC, THAC and has also sat in ICC, SCMA, LMAA, UNCITRAL Rules and ad hoc cases. He also appears as lead counsel in international arbitrations.

Steven has extensive experience with disputes involving Asia-Pacific jurisdictions including Singapore, India, China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, South Korea, Japan, Thailand, Vietnam, Cambodia, Philippines, Indonesia, Malaysia, Brunei, Nepal, US and Australia.

Steven has received recognition as a leading individual in international dispute resolution and arbitration in Chambers and Legal 500 where he has been noted as "hugely experienced", "a respected arbitrator with extensive experience handling commercial arbitrations in the construction, infrastructure and energy sectors". He has also been described as "a prominent counsel in arbitration", "very impressive advocate", "is well known as a high quality individual", for his "very extensive arbitration experience, both as counsel and as an arbitrator. He acts frequently on matters in the construction, energy and resources, and shipbuilding sectors, and is respected for his incisive mind and in-depth research", "peers point out his sharp intellect", "a pragmatic international arbitration professional who turns out quality work every time", "all his advice is well considered, well researched and well thought through", "an excellent communicator - he identifies the salient issues to pursue and lets you know what the game plan is. He focuses people's minds on those issues", "inventive", "meticulous, technically minded and excellent at assessing the merits of a client's position", and "well known for energy disputes".

Sue Hyun Lim, Secretary General, KCAB INTERNATIONAL

SUE HYUN LIM is the Secretary General of KCAB INTERNATIONAL. Among her various responsibilities Ms. Lim oversees KCAB's international arbitration case management process, ensuring the efficiency and cost-effectiveness of the procedures. She is also in charge of public relations efforts to further enhance the standing of KCAB INTERNATIONAL - and Seoul as a seat of arbitration - among international users.

A Korean licensed attorney, and also admitted to the New York State bar, Ms. Lim was a partner at Bae, Kim & Lee LLC prior to her appointment as Secretary General, where she advised and represented clients in numerous international arbitration and litigation matters. In 2010-2011, Ms. Lim studied at the New York University School of Law (LL.M.) after which she worked as visiting lawyer in Debevoise Plimpton LLP.

Featured in Who's Who Legal: Arbitration Future Leaders 2019 and on WWL Korea 2019, she has actively and continuously spearheaded efforts to promote international arbitration of Korea. Ms. Lim has written and co-written a number of published pieces, and is a contributing author to Arbitration Law in Korea: Practice and Procedure (Juris Publishing, 2012), the 2016 edition of Arbitration, Practice and Law (Parkyoungsa, 2016), and most recently the Global Practice Guide for Litigation in South Korea (Chambers and Partners, 2017).

Katie Chung, Counsel, Norton Rose Fulbright (Asia) LLP

Katie Chung is Counsel in the international arbitration practice of Norton Rose Fulbright based in Singapore. Katie is recognized as a 'Next Generation Lawyer' by Legal 500 Asia Pacific and is described as an "intimidating opponent" who "cuts to the chase", "knows her stuff" and is "really impressive". Katie is named by Singapore Business Review as one of Singapore's most influential lawyers under 40. She has also been nominated by Who's Who Legal as a Future Leader in International Arbitration.

With more than a decade of experience in international arbitration, Katie has advised and represented both private and state-owned clients in international arbitration conducted under institutional and ad hoc arbitration rules. These disputes usually feature an Asian element; involve a wide range of applicable laws and multi-jurisdictional parallel court proceedings. Katie has extensive experience in oil and gas, renewables and the power sector. Katie has also practised in Hong Kong and was seconded to an international oil company in Hong Kong. Katie regularly sits as an arbitrator, and is on the reserve panel of arbitrators for the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) and the list of arbitrators for the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC).

Katie is a member of the executive committee of the Asia-Pacific Forum for International Arbitration (AFIA) and its publication sub-committee. She is currently a 'buddy' in a Young ICCA Mentoring Group, for aspiring and younger international arbitration practitioners. She is also assistant editor of the Singapore Law Blog, and speaks and publishes regularly on international arbitration.

Prior to joining the firm in June 2010, Katie worked for several years in a leading boutique litigation and arbitration firm. Katie read law at the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE). She is bilingual in English and Mandarin and has a working knowledge of Cantonese.
