Roderick Cordara QC, SC, Essex Court Chambers, London

Roderick Cordara is a Leading Counsel ('Silk') in the UK and Australia and has an international practice, both in commercial and investor-state arbitration. He has substantial experience sitting as sole, chair and co-arbitrator internationally. He can appear before the Courts of the United Kingdom, the European Court of Justice, the Singapore International Commercial Court, and the State and Federal Courts of Australia.

Roderick's arbitration practice focuses in particular on disputes - both private law and treaty-based - relating to the oil & gas, power generation and renewables sectors, principally in Asia, UK offshore, and East and West Africa. He has acted in energy-related disputes (e.g. production sharing, or insurance-related) in relation to fields in Central Asia, India, Africa, the Far East, and UK Offshore.

He has also great experience in shipping and ship construction disputes, involving shipyards from Asia to Europe, and vessels from super luxury yachts and warships, to bulk carriers.

Dr. Anangga W. Roosdiono, Chairman, BANI Arbitration Center

Dr. Anangga W. Roosdiono, S.H., LL.M, FCI Arb., FII Arb., is the Chairman of BANI Arbitration Center, Chairman of International Mediation and Arbitration Center (IMAC), Vice President of Asia Pacific Regional Arbitration Group and Vice Chairman the Indonesian Sports Arbitration Board (BAKI). He is listed arbitrator at the Asian International Arbitration Center (AIAC) and Thailand Arbitration Center (THAC), and a member of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS).

Dr. Anangga is the founder and Senior Partner of Roosdiono & Partners, He is member of the Association of Indonesian Capital Market Legal Consultants (HKHPM). He is also a member of ASEAN Business Advisory Council. Dr. Anangga lectures at the Business and Management School, Bandung Institute of Technology, Bandung, and at the Law School, University Pelita Harapan, Jakarta.

Arvin Lee, Partner, Wee Swee Teow LLP

Arvin Lee is a Partner of Wee Swee Teow LLP, a 110-year-old Singapore law firm. He is an Arbitrator of the Korean Commercial Arbitration Board, the Beijing Arbitration Commission, the Chinese Arbitration Association (International), and an Adjudicator of the Financial Institutions Dispute Resolution Centre (Singapore).

He focuses on energy-related disputes (conventional and renewables). He has a track record of securing arbitral awards that have been enforced outside Singapore, such as in China of an SIAC award he successfully obtained for a Singapore-listed company for specific performance. Recent work includes acting as lead counsel in wind and solar disputes, and oil and gas hedging disputes, before the SIAC and the ICC; acting as co-lead counsel for a Pertamina subsidiary against a major European bank in relation to an LC dispute in excess of US$23m before the Singapore International Commercial Court; advising a third party funder in relation to a US$103m claim, and a private equity fund with an AUM in excess of US$500m on a 8-figure USD claim against a major international bank for various economic torts (including a novel one under Singapore law). He also regularly co-counsels with foreign lawyers on their Singapore-seated arbitrations and litigations. His varied publications include a piece in the Law Gazette published by the Law Society of Singapore, on how to maintain good and happy co-counsel relationships with foreign counsel.

He has experience acting both for and against Indonesian entities in international arbitration, with amounts in dispute ranging from USD6 million through USD173 million. On the transactional side, he was personally instructed by Shanghai Decent Co. Ltd to be part of a transactional team to advise on a US$50 million private equity injection by the China ASEAN Fund into PT Sulawesi Mining Investama, an Indonesian company that holds Indonesia's largest iron-nickel project and which was part-owned by the Shanghai Decent group.

Arvin is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (UK) and the International Dispute Resolution Academy (HK). He holds a certificate in Hedging and Management of Energy Price Risk (2021) from the SMU Academy. He holds law degrees from Harvard (LL.M.) and the LSE (LL.B., Hons. 1st).

Derric Yeoh, Partner and Head of International Arbitration and Litigation, Donaldson & Burkinshaw LLP

Derric is a Partner and the Head of International Arbitration and Litigation at Donaldson & Burkinshaw LLP, a 148 years old law firm in Singapore. He is an international arbitration lawyer with experience representing clients in investor-state, commercial, and sports arbitrations. He is experienced with arbitrations from both a common law and civil law perspective having worked at a leading Swiss law firm and a top United States firm prior to joining Donaldson & Burkinshaw LLP. He is also fully bilingual in English and Mandarin Chinese.

Derric is very familiar with arbitrations administered under the following arbitral institution rules: SIAC, ICC, HKIAC, LCIA, AIAC, CIETAC, CAS, SCC, ICSID, and UNCITRAL. He has represented States, companies, and individuals in complex, multi-jurisdictional, and high value international arbitrations and litigations. His areas of expertise are in corporate commercial, banking, construction, energy, pharmaceutical, intellectual property, commodities, international trade, sports, insolvency, technology, cryptocurrency, and ESG disputes. Derric was also instructed counsel in BOK v BOL & BOM [2017] SGHC 316, which is the seminal case on the applicability of the doctrine of unconscionability in Singapore.

Derric's articles have been published in the Journal of International Arbitration, the Singapore Arbitration Journal, the Kluwer Arbitration Blog, and they are widely cited by other authors. He has also spoken at various international conferences (such as the IBA Annual Conference) with prominent speakers such as Lord Briggs of the United Kingdom Supreme Court, on a variety of topics including blockchain arbitration, investor-state arbitration arising from the Belt and Road Initiative, and legal profession wellness.

Derric was formerly an elected Council Member of the Law Society of Singapore from 2020-2021 and is a member of the Young Lawyers Committee, International Relations Committee, and Civil Practice Committee. He is also the assistant editor of the Singapore Arbitration Journal and E-Sports Convenor of the Sports Committee.
